CATIE and WorxHub Reminders

All residents are reminded to use CATIE when making a registration for events and activities when required. You will also find dining menus, minutes from Association, Council, and Committee meetings, ZOOM links for exercise, and a host of other information. You will also find the link to WorxHub to enter work orders for maintenance support.

Library Corner

Here are some titles donated by residents and now available to borrow: Erik Larson – The Demon of Unrest; Ann Patchett – Tom Lake (Large Print); Marie Benedict – The First Ladies; Barbra Streisand – My Name is Barbra; Jeffrey Archer – Next in Line.

Some of our collections in the Founders Campus Library have changed locations.

- Hurlbut Collection of classic books are now on shelves above the two computer stations.
- Books on Pennsylvania / local interest are now in the small unit just inside the door.

Want to recommend a newly released book to be added? For both library locations, write the title on an index card and place it in the basket. Our next book purchase will be in November.

Book donations are accepted every day. Please leave your donations at either library location. Donations not currently in our collection are added; duplicates are kept for our Used Book Sale on Saturday, October 26.
