■ MMC Herb and Garden Society trip to Terrain in Glen Mills

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, DEPARTING FROM THE WOODS LOBBY AT 10:00 AM

Their flagship location, Terrain at Styer's, opened in 2008. The historic John Franklin Styer's nursery, a garden landmark (est. in 1890) known for its innovation in peonies and mushrooms, was the perfect place to reinvent the American garden center. Inside you'll find our home store filled with nature-inspired décor, candles and lighting, seasonal packaged foods, gifts, and garden gear. Adjacent is the greenhouse with a lush assortment of indoor plants and containers, as well as a station for custom plantings by their Design Services team. Outside, the nursery is filled with locally sourced plants, outdoor containers and gardening essentials, as well as outdoor furniture and fire pits. Before, after, or during your shopping, enjoy lunch in their onsite restaurant.

There is no cost for this event. Lunch is on your own.

Registration is necessary. Register with Michele.

Lemon Street Boutique Reopens with Style and Charm

Lemon Street Boutique is back and better than ever! Recently refreshed, the shop offers a selection of jewelry, purses, clothing, both brand new and gently loved. Candy and cards too!

The updated space creates a warm, welcoming environment for browsing and discovering your next favorite find. Come visit us Monday through Saturday 11:00 am – 1:00 pm and see what's new at Lemon Street Boutique –where fashion meets community.

Be sure to check out September's book display on the library table, titled "Fall" Into Reading, featuring fall favorites.

A new book is being added to the local section. Historical View of Lititz is a fascinating photographic collection of scenes of Lititz, compiled by Charlene Mearig Van Brookhoven.

Everyday Technology is the topic of September's Digital Literacy presentation with Justine. These presentations, brought to us by Lititz Public Library Outreach, are proving to be popular and informative. Consider attending one that interests you.

Through donations and purchases, we have been adding new titles to the library collection. Thank you all for your ongoing book donations. Donations received over the summer have translated into good shopping opportunities at the November book sale!
