■ Fireside Theater Club

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 3:30 PM, HALL OF FAME

The curtain raises for our reading of a one-act farce by the great British playwright Peter Schaffer. Schaeffer was also responsible for Amadeus and Equus! The time is right for comedy. And the British have a knack for some of the best farce. Recent productions of The Play That Goes Wrong, Peter Pan Goes Wrong, Murder at Ackerton Manor (all at the FULTON) and The Thanksgiving Play (at EPAC) reinforce the entertainment value of a good farce. A good time for all! Following our ACT ONE "script reading" and dinner interval we will return for a special ACT TWO video tour of the Theatre Royal Haymarket, one of London's premier "West End" playhouses (think: New York's "Broadway"). Using a video documentary series, we will sample a few episodes, as we go behind the scenes of one of London's oldest theaters.

Travelogue: South Africa with Bob Wyble

Two dedicated members of the Library Committee recently visited the Lititz Public Library to learn the art of book binding. Binding helps preserve our purchased paperback books, extending their lifespan and keeping them in circulation longer. Thanks to the expertise and generosity of our friends at the Lititz Public Library, our cataloged paperbacks—including many large-print titles—will remain available for residents to enjoy for years to come.

This month's table display, "She Does Have a Name," features books about women whose names do not appear in the title. Be sure to browse this unique and thought-provoking collection during your next visit to the Founders Library.

The Lifelong Learning Committee is planning a community-wide resident read of Women Rowing North: Navigating Life's Currents and Flourishing as We Age by Mary Pipher. Hardcover copies of the book will be available to borrow from both the Founders and Woods Libraries.

We also are planning to create a special section of the library showcasing books written by MMC residents. If you are a resident author and would like to participate, we invite you to donate one or more of your books for inclusion in this collection. We welcome books in any genre, including both fiction and nonfiction.

Check In Service

Our Daily Check-In Service is designed to help you stay safe and independent from the comfort of your home. Checking in is easy—simply press the button on the pull cord in your bathroom once each day between 4:00 am and 10:00 am. If you have not checked in by 10:00 am a Wellness Center nurse will call you between 10:00 am and 11:00 am. If we are unable to reach you by phone, an MMC team member will come to your home to perform a wellness check and ensure you do not need additional assistance. If you are not currently enrolled in the Daily Check-In Service and would like to participate, please complete the form on CATIE or contact Joylinn Yost directly at 717-625-6744.

A quick check-in today can make a real difference tomorrow.
